Food Insecurity

The limited or uncertain availability of nutritionally adequate foods, including involuntarily cutting back on meals, food portions or not knowing the source of the next meal.

Food Security

Access to enough food for an active, healthy life.

At a minimum, food security includes: (1) the ready availability of nutritionally adequate and safe foods, and (2) an assured ability to acquire acceptable foods in socially acceptable ways.

This Seder is based on the Hunger Banquet of Oxfam.

The preeminent Jewish organization to combat hunger is called Mazon. We encourage all families to work with them when having a simcha like a Bar or Bat Mitzvah.
